TITLE VIII—RESTRICTING UNITED STATES ASSISTANCE FOR RECONSTRUCTION EFFORTS IN KOSOVA TO UNITED STATES-PRODUCED ARTICLES AND SERVICES

SEC. 801. RESTRICTION ON UNITED STATES ASSISTANCE FOR RECONSTRUCTION EFFORTS IN KOSOVA TO UNITED STATES-PRODUCED ARTICLES AND SERVICES.

(a) PROHIBITION.—Notwithstanding any other provision of law, United States assistance for reconstruction efforts in Kosova due to the armed conflict or atrocities that have occurred in the Federal Republic of Yugoslavia since March 24, 1999, may only consist of articles produced in the United States, services provided by United States persons, or any other related form of United States in-kind assistance.

(b) RULE OF CONSTRUCTION.—A determination as to whether or not an article is produced in the United States in accordance with subsection (a) shall be consistent with the opinions, decisions, rules, or any guidance issued by the Federal Trade Commission regarding the use of unqualified "Made in U.S.A." or "Made in America" claims in labels on products introduced, delivered for introduction, sold, advertised, or offered for sale in commerce.

(c) DEFINITIONS.—In this section:

(1) ARTICLE.—The term "article" includes any agricultural commodity, steel, construction material, communications equipment, construction machinery, farm machinery, or petrochemical refinery equipment.

(2) FEDERAL REPUBLIC OF YUGOSLAVIA.—The term "Federal Republic of Yugoslavia" means the Federal Republic of Yugoslavia (Serbia and Montenegro) and includes Kosova.

(3) MADE IN AMERICA.—The term "Made in America" has the meaning given unqualified

"Made in U.S.A." or "Made in America" claims for purposes of laws administered by the Federal Trade Commission.

(4) UNITED STATES PERSON.—The term "United States person" means any United States national, including any United States corporation, partnership, other legal entity, organization, or association that is beneficially owned by United States nationals or controlled in fact by United States nationals.

(4) PRODUCED.—The term "produced", with respect to an item, includes an item mined, manufactured, made, assembled, grown, or extracted.

(5) SERVICE.—The term "service" includes any engineering, construction, telecommunications, or financial service.

H.R. 2415

OFFERED BY MR. TRAFICANT

TITLE VIII—LIMITATION ON PROCUREMENT OUTSIDE THE UNITED STATES

SEC. 801. LIMITATION ON PROCUREMENT OUTSIDE THE UNITED STATES.

(a) IN GENERAL.—Funds made available for assistance for fiscal year 2000 under the Foreign Assistance Act of 1961, the Arms Export Control Act, or any other provision of law described in this Act for which amounts are authorized to be appropriated for such fiscal years, may be used for procurement outside the United States or less developed countries only if—

(1) such funds are used for the procurement of commodities or services, or defense articles or defense services, produced in the country in which the assistance is to be provided, except that this paragraph only applies if procurement in that country would cost less than procurement in the United States or less developed countries;

(2) the provision of such assistance requires commodities or services, or defense articles or defense services, of a type that are not produced in, and available for purchase from, the United States, less developed countries, or the country in which the assistance is to be provided;

(3) the Congress has specifically authorized procurement outside the United States or less developed countries; or

(4) the President determines on a case-by-case basis that procurement outside the United States or less developed countries would result in the more efficient use of United States foreign assistance resources.

(b) EXCEPTION.—Subsection (a) shall not apply to assistance for Kosovo or the people of Kosovo.

AMENDMENT NO. 12: At the end of the bill, insert after the last section (preceding the short title) the following new section:

SEC. ____ (a) The General Accounting Office shall conduct a study to determine the extent to which the incidence of seemingly random yet recurrent violence on the part of employees and former employees of the United States Postal Service might be related to the levels of workplace-related problems and frustrations experienced by postal workers generally.

(b) In conducting the study, the General Accounting Office shall investigate—

(1) the number of formal or informal proceedings brought by postal employees in recent years in which supervisor abuse or other similar mistreatment by the Postal Service was alleged, and how those proceedings were resolved;

(2) the degree of postal employee satisfaction or dissatisfaction with the different procedures and mechanisms available to them for having their workplace-related frustrations and complaints heard and resolved, particularly any procedures or mechanisms provided pursuant to collective bargaining; and

(3) the number of violent incidents committed by employees or former employees of the Postal Service in recent years, and whether workplace-related problems or frustrations may have been a contributing factor.

(c) The matters to be investigated under subsection (b)(1) shall specifically include discrimination on the basis of gender, race, or disability; sexual harassment; retaliatory assignments; and irregularities in hiring, training, promotions, and disciplinary actions.

(d) The General Accounting Office shall transmit to the Congress and the United States Postal Service, within 1 year after the date of enactment of this Act, a report containing the findings and conclusions of its study, together with recommendations for any legislation or administrative actions which it considers appropriate.
